

CompoSecure, Inc. Announces Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2021 Financial Results

March 10, 2022

- Fourth quarter net sales of $75.3 million, up 40.2% year-over-year
- Full year net sales of $267.9 million, in line with guidance
- Full year Adjusted EBITDA of $102.4 million, at high end of guidance range
- Launched Arculus—The next generation cold storage wallet for digital assets

SOMERSET, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 10, 2022-- CompoSecure, Inc. (NASDAQ:CMPO), a leading provider of premium financial payment cards and cryptocurrency storage and security solutions, today announced financial results for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2021.

"2021 was an exciting year for CompoSecure in which we became a newly listed public company, achieved record net sales, and launched a best-in-class three-factor authentication cold storage product for securing digital assets called Arculus," said Jon Wilk, CEO of CompoSecure.

"The Company's fourth-quarter performance was highlighted by net sales growth of 40.2% versus the prior year, providing substantial momentum for the business as we enter 2022. Our premium card business is being driven by strong sales execution as well as our deep customer relationships. As we move forward, we expect to benefit from the trends of increased solicitation by card issuers and growing consumer demand for premium cards as the economy emerges from the challenges of the pandemic. And with the launch of Arculus, we are in position to support a large and growing need for security and authentication solutions in the digital asset marketplace including Crypto, NFTs, and step-up authentication for log in for critical accounts."

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements as defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the beliefs and assumptions of management. Although the Company believes that its plans, intentions, and expectations reflected in or suggested by these forward-looking statements are reasonable, the Company cannot assure you that it will achieve or realize these plans, intentions, or expectations. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. Generally, statements that are not historical facts, including statements concerning the Company's possible or assumed future actions, business strategies, events, or results of operations, are forward-looking statements. In some instances, these statements may be preceded by, followed by or include the words "believes," "estimates," "expects," "projects," "forecasts," "may," "will," "should," "seeks," "plans," "scheduled," "anticipates" or "intends" or the negatives of these terms or variations of them or similar terminology. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. You should not put undue reliance on these statements which speak only as of the date hereof. You should understand that the following important factors, among others, could affect the Company's future results and could cause those results or other outcomes to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the Company's forward-looking statements: the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the Company or others; the impacts of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic; the ability of the Company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers, compete within its industry and retain its key employees; the possibility that the Company may be adversely impacted by other economic conditions (including the rapidly evolving conflict between Russian and the Ukraine), business, and/or competitive factors; future exchange and interest rates; and other risks and uncertainties included under "Risk Factors" in other Company filings that have been made or will be made with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company undertakes no obligations to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This press release includes certain non-GAAP financial measures that are not prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP") and that may be different from non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. The Company believes EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful to investors in evaluating the Company's financial performance. The Company uses these measures internally to establish forecasts, budgets and operational goals to manage and monitor its business, as well as evaluate its underlying historical performance and to measure incentive compensation, as we believe that these non-GAAP financial measures depict the true performance of the business by encompassing only relevant and controllable events, enabling the Company to evaluate and plan more effectively for the future. In addition, the Company's debt agreements contain covenants that use a variation of these measures for purposes of determining debt covenant compliance. The Company believes that investors should have access to the same set of tools that its management uses in analyzing operating results. EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as measures of financial performance under U.S. GAAP, and the items excluded from EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are significant components in understanding and assessing the Company's financial performance. Accordingly, these key business metrics have limitations as an analytical tool. They should not be considered as an alternative to net income or any other performance measures derived in accordance with U.S. GAAP or as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities as a measure of the Company's liquidity, and may be different from similarly titled non-GAAP measures used by other companies. Please refer to the tables below for the reconciliation of net income to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA for the quarters and years ended December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020.
